INTRODUCTION

The companion reports, Degrees Awarded by Oregon Colleges and Universities and Certificates Awarded by Oregon Degree-Granting Colleges and Universities, provide general information on degrees and certificates awarded by postsecondary institutions in Oregon. The data used in these reports were obtained from the annual completions survey administered by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES). The completions survey is one in a series collectively known as the IPEDS Survey, which replaced the HEGIS survey in 1987.

From 1968–1969 to 1989–90, the Office of Degree Authorization (ODA) published data annually on postsecondary degrees. Publications were not released again until the 1993–94 reports. Following a second gap, publications resumed again with the 1996–97 reports.

Both reports contain summary tables of awards and detailed tables. Summary tables are arranged by segment, program area, and racial ethnic background. Detailed tables are organized in four major sections: by each institution in segment groupings, by race for each institution in segment groupings, by program area, and by race for each program area.

The Degrees Awarded report summarizes associate's, bachelor's, master's, doctoral, and first professional degrees. The Certificates Awarded report summarizes certificates awarded for work in programs of less than one year, one to two years, and two to four years as well as for work in postbaccalaureate and post-master's programs at degree-granting public and nonpublic two- and four-year postsecondary institutions in Oregon.

This report includes data from Walla Walla College's School of Nursing. The school's main campus is based in the state of Washington, but nursing students complete the final two years of their program at the school's campus in Portland, Oregon. Also included is data from Antioch University, which offered the Intercultural Communication Institute (ICI) master's program in intercultural relations until 2001.

Refer to the following page containing definitions of terms used throughout this report.

This report was created with help from Jeffrey Maze, Susan Degen, and Ramona Correia.
